I. General Objectives of the Library
II. Basic Rules governing personnel and other internal rules of the library.
III. Bock Selection Policy

General Objectives

I. The general objectives of the Hanover Town Library in Etna, N. H. are:

1. To encourage solf-education thru the availability of books in many fioldswhile not offering an extensive amount in any one particular area, it is hoped that a beginning can be found here, if desired.
2. Te offer a good overall selection of oneylopedia, dictionaries and reference books for the young people in the area, who might otherwise have no way of using
3. Thru good fiction and current non-fiction books, to help enlighten any readers in their quest for knowledge or simply to provide good reading entertainment.
4. Provide free service to $2 l l$ members of the community.
5. Support the Library Bill of Rights and Freedom to Read statements.

Basic Rules on Personnel

2. The personnel of the library of the library shall include a paid librarian and a custodian with an elected board of trustees.
3. Duties of the librarian:
4. Maintain a minimum of 4 hour e weak in the library.
b. Degree of responsibility:
5. To dispense books and literature
6. To select and purchase any new books and periodicals, etc
7. Te keep records and reports of all books.
8. To select Bookmobile books.
9. To hire a substitute when necessary.

Addonda

II. Basic Rules on Personnel
(1) a. The librarian is a town omployec and as such, is ontitled to Social security bonefits. However, bocause of this part-time status, she is not ontitled to any other componsations, such as, insurance, paid vacations or regular paid sick-leave.
III. Book Solection and Use of the Library.
2. Fines are to be levied by the librarian at the rate of two cents 2 day for cach book kept overtim. Books may be kept for three weeks with the privilege of ronewal except for $7-14$ day books. Those Rules and Regulations are to be found on the inside cover of each book in the library.
3. Duties of the custodian
2. To koep grounds and sidowalk in good condition and appearance for use of the public.
b. Te maintain cleanliness of the interior of the building thru:

1. Dusting of floors, furniture and books.
2. Maintenance of floors. 3. Specific dutios as outlined by trustees.
III. Book Selection and Use of Library.
3. Books are to be selected by the librarian, or at the suggestions of the trustoos.
4. Fines are to be levied by the librarian.
5. Books and gifts will be accepted on the condition that the library authorities may make whatever disposition of them they consider in the best interests of the library
