

1986
JUL 13 1986

ETNA LIBRARY

On July 3, 1986 it was decided by the Etna Library trustees that the Etna Library would retain its autonomy while continuing the friendly and informal relationship it now has with the Howe Library. At the same time, the Etna Library trustees see the need for Planning for the future and are now in the Process of developin9 a community survey. It is hoped that this survey will serve as a startin9 Point for developin9 long range goals for the library.