Library Programs For Summer

To the Editor:

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, blast off to the Etna Library, where you can explore new worlds and sign up for our 1997 Summer Reading Program. Take us to your readers! This annual statewide program is sponsored by CHILIS (Children's Librarians of New Hampshire) to encourage year-round reading by children. Funding is provided by Citizen's Bank. Independent readers and families who wish to read aloud can sign up beginning June 1.

Join us for our annual community picnic and book sale on June 9 (rain date June 16), a visit from children's book author and illustrator John Stadler on July 10, a puppet show on July 11, storytime every other week and more fun programs all summer. For a complete schedule of events and more information about the Summer Reading Program, stop by the library or call (603) 643-3116.

Old Library With New Services

To the Editor:

The trustees and librarian of the Etna Library invite the Etna-Hanover community to celebrate what's old and what's new at an open house on Saturday, Oct. 11, from 10 a.m. to noon.

This spring, the library was placed on the National Register of Historic Places. The beautiful setting, architecture and furnishings reflect an earlier era. The collection, programs and services, however, live up to the demands of the present! Our conversion project is complete, and we now have an on-line catalog, automated circulation system and easy access to interlibrary loan.

Guests attending the open house will be eligible to win a pair of tickets to the Nugget Theater, which were generously donated by the Hanover Improvement Society, and will be treated to refreshments. We hope to see our loyal patrons as well as lots of new faces.
