

Jan Nelson and Ruth Perrinez, both of Etna, pore over Perrinez's photographs of her grandparents, who moved to Etna in 1917, while the two work on making patches for a quilt Nelson plans to sew commemorating Etna's history at the Etna

Library yesterday. "Everyone who has come and participated has had wonderful stories about what Etna used to be like," said Nelson.