THE STONE BRIDGES

The two bridges over Mink brook on main highways, had long been in a dangerous condition. The requirements of modern automobile travel, road rollers, Standard Oil Co.'s wagons, and the unknown requirements for traction engines in the future called for unusually wide and strong bridges. The foundation and abutments of the old bridges were only of dry masonry, had been heaved by frost and were in such bad shape that entire rebuilding was necessary from the bottom up. The problem was to get permanent bridges, good for all the future, if possible.

Wooden bridges in these days for such traffic are out of the question, because not durable enough and too costly to maintain. A price was asked for heavy steel plate girders, 40 ft. span for a concrete floor, and the figure given was $1,775. The abutments and wing walls properly built, would cost $1,000 or $1,200 at least; total nearly $3,000 for one. By courtesy of the College authorities the massive stone work in the foundation of the old bank building was offered free of cost if the town would haul it away. Then, as there was a considerable amount of stone under and near the old bridge, and plenty not far away, the writer proposed a stone arch, and drew a plan for the same. A study of the drainage area of Mink brook showed that a 40 ft. water-way was too much, and the span was fixed at 28 ft.

The Lane Construction Co. was then building the Tuck highway for the College and was asked to make a bid for building a stone bridge on the plans shown, having the benefit of the stone at hand. They wanted more than $5,000. This was deemed too high. It was calculated that such a sum would almost build two bridges across the brook, and the Selectmen decided to use home talent, buy for themselves, the material needed, and keep the money in town. This was done and the results have justified expectations.

There was no attempt to build nicely finished stonework, but simply rough and massive construction. Only the parapets are visible to those who merely cross the bridges; hence shaping and finishing on the arch and faces was not needed. Yet their appearance has been highly commended by those who have viewed them from upstream. No. 1, on W. Lebanon road, has a reinforced arch between the faces; No. 2, is built wholly of stone concrete. For the successful accomplishment of this work, sometimes under considerable difficulty and hardship, the town is indebted to the skill and perseverance of Mr. Henry, Supt., and Mr. Brisson and Mr. Jackson, masons, and the others whose labors have given to the town these truly monumental structures.

Acknowledgments are due also to Mr. Cutting, Mr. LaBombard and the late Chas. W. Stone for offer of stone on their premises and for friendly co-operation in carrying on the work.

As to comparative cost, it is believed that steel bridges would have cost nearly, and perhaps quite as much as the stone bridges. The difference for the new foundations, abutments and wingwalls would be that steel girders would have required higher abutments. The saving if any, would hardly have been more than $500, and the interest on that sum would barely suffice to keep them painted and maintain the floors. The stone bridges are believed to be sufficient for any possible future load that will ever pass on the road. They are permanent for generations to come, cost nothing to maintain, and are more desirable, even if they cost more. These with the nine-foot stone arch over the spillway at the reservoir give Hanover the distinction of having the only stone highway bridges so far as we are aware, in all northern New Hampshire.

March 3, 1915

The selectmen have been advised by the State Tax Commission to call attention of the voters to the alarming increase in public expenditures in New Hampshire during the past ten years.

In 1903 the sum of all the taxes assessed by and within the State of New Hampshire was $5,373,420.32.

In 1913 the sum of these taxes was $8,765,039.07; an increase of $3,391,618.85 in ten years.

This is an increase of 63%.

Meanwhile the population of the State has increased only 4½%.

In 1903 taxes averaged $12.88 for each man, woman and child in the State.

In 1913 they averaged $20.09.

The wage earner or the man of limited means may think that he is not paying taxes.

Taxes are hidden in the rent he pays; in the cost of his food; his clothes; his travel.

If the man fully realized this, his influence and his vote would more frequently make for economy and care in appropriations and expenditures.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION FOR SCHOOL DISTRICT NUMBER ONE

For the past year the High School has had the advantage of having the same principal and two of the same teachers as last year. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Morton was filled by Miss Payson, a graduate of Brown University with three years' experience in teaching. Miss Hayes has been retained as teacher in the Commercial Course. Mr. Bushnell was engaged at the beginning of the year as teacher in Chemistry at a salary of $150. This has formerly been paid from funds of Moor's Charity School; but the fund being no longer available this teacher must be paid this year and in the future from the regular appropriations of the district. Mr. Colley has until within a few weeks, given a weekly lesson in music to students in the High School.

At the beginning of the school year the number of students had so increased that a separate teacher was provided for each grade so that we now have eight teachers for the eight grades. To accommodate these eight grades in different rooms it was necessary to use the laboratory for one grade and the hall for another. While the board do not feel that this arrangement is ideal it is better than having two grades in one room and is the best that could be done. Miss Beverage, a normal school graduate of Gorham, with three years' experience in teaching was engaged to take Miss Hennessey's place who had resigned, and Miss Marshall, a graduate of Plymouth Normal School was engaged to teach the seventh grade. Until the middle of the year we were fortunate enough to retain the services of Miss Gilman. An offer of a higher salary elsewhere made her resign. With her resignation the school sustained a serious loss as she was one of our best teachers. Her place has been filled by Miss Pearson, a graduate of Plymouth Normal School with two years' experience in teaching, and the work in the sixth grade seems to be going on satisfactorily. Miss Campbell and Miss Andrews have charge respectively of grades three and five, as last year. Miss Hall, who formerly taught both first and second grades was given grade two only, and two new teachers, Miss Jackson and Miss Riford, both graduates of the Concord Training School, were engaged to teach grades one and four. All of our teachers, both in High School and the grades, are certified teachers and as such the District received from the state, for each teacher, two dollars per week.

The singing during the year, in the grades, has been under the competent guidance of Mrs. Little, whose plan for grading the instruction in music promises to add greatly to the efficiency of this department.

Mr. Fay resigned from the school board in September, and in accordance with the law Mr. Musgrove was appointed to fill the position until the next annual meeting.

The statistics of attendance and scholarship are given in tables which follow.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Education by

VESTA F. GILE,

Clerk of the Board

VITAL STATISTICS.

TO THE SELECTMEN:

In compliance with an act of the legislature passed June session, 1887, requiring clerks of towns and cities to furnish a transcript of the record of births, marriages, and deaths, to the municipal officers for publication in the annual town report, I hereby submit the following.

Respectfully,

GEORGE M. BRIDGMAN,
Town Clerk

EXPLANATION REGARDING VITAL STATISTICS

The following statistics include the births and deaths occurring in the Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital during 1914, which do not properly belong to the town.

Twenty-four were children born there of mothers from other towns, and twenty-seven persons from other towns died there. Taking these from the number given in the tables, the record for Hanover would be forty-eight births and twenty-nine deaths.
